SMITH & BROTHER,

DEALERS IN

BOOTS & SHOES,

No. 116 Main Street,

OPPOSITE WALDO BLOCK,

WORCESTER.

JOHN F. SMITH. GEORGE E. SMITH.

'GET THE BEST.'

'All young persons should have a standard

DICTIONARY,

at their elbows. And while you are about it, get the best; that Dictionary is

NOAH WEBSTER'S,

The great work, unabridged. If you are too poor, save the amount from off your back, to put it into your head.'---Phrenolog. Journal.

'Dr Webster's great work is the best Dictionary of the English language.'---London Morning Chronicle.

'We can have no hesitation in giving it as our opinion, that this is the most elaborate and successful undertaking of the kind which has ever appeared.'---London Times.

'This Dictionary is, undoubtedly, the most complete Dictionary of the English language that has ever been published, and ages will elapse before any other dictionary of that language will be required. It is in every respect, far superior to the folio edltions of Johnson's Dictionary. The introductory matter—on the origin and progress of language—Etymology—the changes of the English language, and other topics—contains an immense mass of useful information, which must have cost the author a very great degree of labor and research. The pronunciation of Scriptural, Classical and Geographical names, forms a most valuable appendix to the Dictionary, and cannot be too highly appreciated.' THOMAS DICK.

Broughty Ferry, near Dundee, Sept. 12, 1849.

WEBSTER'S QUARTO DICTIONARY.—Messrs Merriam have just received an order for a case of Webster's Quarto Dictionary, from a merchant in Calcutta. They have previously received several orders for quantities of the work, from Bombay, and Ceylon. Professor Stowe has said of it, that "it deserves to be, must be, is, and will be, THE STANDARD, wherever the English language is spoken." The demand for the work, in foreign countries, as well as at home, warrants the belief that he is correct in his estimate of its merits and popularity.—SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN, OCT. 4, 1849.

Published by G. & C. MERRIAM, Springfield, Mass, and for sale by all Booksellers.

MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE.

THE WORCESTER MUTUAL

Fire Insurance Company,

Incorporated Feb. 11, 1828, and Charter renewed 1847,

Continue to insure on buildings of every description and use, except Cotton and Woolen Factories, Paper Mills, Furnaces and Blacksmith's Shops, Tanneries where Furnaces are used, Carpenters', Wheelwrights', Chair makers' and Cabinet Makers' Shops, or buildings so near them as to be exposed thereby, and buildings in which steam power is employed, or shavings are made in such quantities as to increase the risk, and buildings used for unlawful purposes or in which unlawful business is carried on with the consent and knowledge of the owner.

They also insure Household Furniture, including Books, Wearing Apparel and Family Stores kept in dwellings; and (with the exception of the stock of Livery Stables,) they insure Hay and Grain, Live Stock, Carriages and Harnesses.

The long and successful operation of the OLD WORCESTER MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, and the large dividends paid at the expiration of a Policy, have secured the confidence of the public, and the present Managers of its concerns are desirous that the people should be in possession of the above information.

The amount of their cash fund exceeds one hundred and twenty thousand dollars; and with their vigilance in looking after their risks (having a competent person constantly employed in examining buildings insured by them,) they confidently believe it will continue to increase.

The Company have been desirous for a long time to confine their insurance to the safest kind of risks, which they are now enabled, effectually, to do, in consequence of other Mutual Offices having recently gone into operation, which are willing to insure the most hazardous kinds of property.

The inducement to persons owning the kinds of property to be protected against loss by fire which the Company can insure, is as great, if not greater, in that office than in any other in New England. Office in Court House.

THE

MASSACHUSETTS CATARACT,

A large, temperance, business, and "family journal, devoted to total abstinence, morals, education, useful arts, literature, business, and general intelligence,"—J. W. GOODRICH, EDITOR,—is published weekly, and simultaneously at WORCESTER, and at BOSTON, by GOODRICH, BROWN & Co., at $1 for One, and $5 for Six copies per annum, if paid within the first three months. With this paper have been successively united the WORCESTER "WATERFALL," the BOSTON "TEMPERANCE STANDARD,"—and the TAUNTON "DEW DROP," and as it is now well established, commencing its 8th volume in March 1850, and having a weekly circulation of about 4000 copies, shrewd business men, and others, will see the advantage of making it ONE of their channels of communication with the public. If TEETOTALLERS don't support the TEETOTAL PRESS, who will?

New England Temperance Journal,

A monthly Paper, one half the size of the "CATARACT," and filled entirely with reading matter, is also published by the same proprietors, "GOODRICH, BROWN & Co."—on the first of every month, and simultaneously at the same Cataract office, in WORCESTER, and in BOSTON, at the following very low cash terms, viz.—

1 copy, 25 cts. per annum; 5 copies to one direction, 1 dollar; 20 copies, 3 dollars; 50 copies, 6 dollars; 100 copies, 10 dollars.

This is the oldest temperance paper in the Union, its 18th volume commencing in Jan. 1850, and will continue to be worthy of the patronage of every Sunday School, family circle, and teetotal society in the land. If TEETOTALLERS don't sustain the TEETOTAL PRESS, who will?

☞All orders and cash for either of these papers, should be sent to the Publishers in Worcester.
